

Harrisburg Diocesan Council of Catholic Women

Invites all women of the Diocese to join us at the

Eleventh Annual Weekend Retreat

Mount St. Mary's University, Emmitsburg, MD

June 9 – 11, 2023 (Friday evening - Sunday noon)

Retreat Master: Father Michael W. Rothan

Theme: The Catholic Exorcism of a "woke" Culture: casting out the demons cleverly embedded in our "New Normal"

- ❖ Formerly, a scientist and teacher, Fr. Rothan received his B.S. in Biology from Shippensburg University. He earned his teaching certification from Millersville University.
- ❖ Fr. Rothan studied for the priesthood at St. Vincent Seminary in Latrobe, PA where he received his B.A. in Philosophy, M.A. in Sacred Scripture and a Master of Divinity Degree.
- ❖ Father Rothan was ordained a priest for the Roman Catholic Diocese of Harrisburg in 2004.
- ❖ Father Rothan is currently Chaplain, Spanish Apostolate of Hanover, Pa. His former assignments have been: Bucknell University, St. Benedict the Abbot/St. Mary/Fatima Lebanon, St. Joan of Arc, Seven Sorrows in Middletown, and Good Shepherd in Camp Hill.
- ❖ Father Rothan has authored 5 books, which include "61 minutes" Reflections and Homilies from the year of Mark; "61 minutes" Reflections and Homilies from the year of Luke; "61 minutes" Reflections and Homilies from the year of Matthew"; "A Squirrel's Tale of a Crow's Feat" and an autobiographical book.

Registration Deadline: May 31, 2023

Contact Jeanne Warren at (717) 367-9306 or warrenrjs@aol.com with questions

See the HDCCW website <http://hdccw.webs.com/retreat> for registration forms